General Grant National Memorial

Ulysses S. Grant Death Day Observance Sunday July 21st, 2019

On July 23, 1885, Ulysses S. Grant passed away at age 63, days after completing his renowned memoirs. Join us for a day of remembrance to honor Grant with a color guard and wreath-laying ceremony in front of the Mausoleum. Then join us for a special presentation in the visitor center about the funeral procession and ceremony the country held for honoring the fallen hero.

Schedule of Events:

11:00 am Ceremony

Wreath-laying, color guard, rifle salute, brass quintet, and bugle ceremony outside in front of the Mausoleum

1:30 pm Farewell to a President

Special presentation by Frank Scaturro, President of Grant Monument Association
