LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

April 2022

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Lieutenant Governor Karyn Polito and I are pleased to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the birthday of General and President Ulysses S. Grant.

Throughout his extraordinary life, Ulysses S. Grant demonstrated courage and dedication to his country, leaving an undeniably positive impact on the United States. He fought gallantly in the Mexican-American War and led the Union to victory in the Civil War. As President, Ulysses S. Grant was instrumental in upholding the Fourteenth Amendment, securing the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, and upholding peace internationally as he led efforts to resolve disputes with Spain and Great Britain. The legacy of Ulysses S. Grant will continue to inspire Americans to pursue a career in public service for generations to come.

Lieutenant Governor Karyn Polito and I are pleased to support the celebration of the 200th birthday of Ulysses S. Grant.

Sincerely,
